

My Hero Academia New Season!

Article Published 28, September, 2020.

Back to the homepage

Ever since the debut of "My Hero Academia" conducted by Kohei Horikoshi. The Shonen Anime has a huge audience due to its amazing story line.

Horikoshi is not only the conductor but also the illustrator of this amazing series.

The show starts out in a world where there are powers called quirks.

80% of the population has quirks and one boy named Izuku Midoriya was the other 20%.

He always dreamed of being his favorite hero, another protagonist All Might.

The antagonists are Villians. In the world of My Hero Academia there are Heroes and Villians.

Izuku Midoriya's Goal now is to become a hero but doesn't have a quirk. He must find a way to get to the top without being born with a quirk.

The show sure does sound awesome. Lately the book version of My Hero Academia also called Manga has been booming

The fans have been waiting for this amazing series for another season.

Recently there has been exciting news from the Weekly Shonen Magazine about the season 5. It is said that the release of the new season is going to be in 2021.

This news makes all the manga readers and shonen watchers excited for the new season.

Of course it is not confirmed that the release of the show is in 2021. It might as well be this year. Just know that season 5 of this amazing series is near!

Article Made by: Rochan Anand

<https://www.monstersandcritics.com/> Monsters & Critics